COLLEGE CITY REMODELING RECEIVES CONTRACTOR OF THE YEAR AWARD

College City Remodeling, a division of Twin Cities-based College City Companies, announces another industry achievement. The company recently received a 2009 Contractor of the Year (COTY) award for outstanding achievement in the Universal Design category and honorable mention for Whole House Renovation.

A celebration of the best in Twin Cities residential remodeling, the COTY Awards are hosted by the Minnesota chapter of the National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI).

“We are honored to be recognized with these COTY awards, especially because the competition increased this year and we were judged by our industry peers,” said Darin Pavek, President of College City Companies.

The winning submissions were judged by a panel of 24 remodeling professionals from the NARI of Milwaukee chapter. Competing this year were a record number of applicants in 25 categories including Universal Design and Whole House Renovation.

“To see our efforts recognized in these important projects is very rewarding to all of us at College City and I am very proud of our team’s efforts,” said Bjorn Freudenthal, VP-Sales and Marketing. “The homeowners in St. Louis Park and Egan were fabulous to work with and our team really felt they were part of important family initiatives.”

NARI of Minnesota, a non-profit trade association, established the annual COTY Awards in 1997 to foster a sense of pride and accomplishment among its members through friendly competition, as well as to increase public awareness of NARI professionals. Additional information about NARI is available at www.narimn.org.
