

Media Release

12/1/2011

Media Inquiries:

Jeremy Hussey - 952-469-6900; jeremyh@collegacitydesignbuild.com

Local Remodeling Company Receives Contractor of the Year Award

December 1, 2011— College City Design-Build, Inc of Lakeville, Mn has been recognized with a 2011 Contractor of the Year (COTY) Award for outstanding home project. The honor came in the category of “Entire House Under $250,000” at the fifteenth annual Contractor of the Year (COTY) Awards Ceremony. The COTY Awards honor outstanding remodeling projects by Twin Cities contractors.

The award-winning project was designed by Bonnie Trowbridge, Lead Designer, in conjunction with the homeowner for a condo-conversion in Edina’s Centennial Lakes neighborhood. Jerry Novak, Job Supervisor, led the construction crew through each phase of work to produce a stunning end result for the homeowner.

If you’re thinking about starting a remodeling project or have visions to improve your lifestyle and make your home more comfortable, call College City Design-Build at (952) 469-6900 or visit the company’s Web site at www.collegacitydesignbuild.com.

#

Photo cut line – COTY Award Recipient, College City Design-Build. Pictured receiving the award is Bonnie Trowbridge, Lead Designer, College City Design-Build.